Mr. Thompson has, we understand, taken several views of the Dragon feast procession, which will doubtless be interesting to students of Chinese habits and customs.
A copy of this, we may observe, that a considerable diversity of opinion exists as to the license granted to the Chinese to celebrate this feast. The religious element may be put out of the question, altogether, as there is not the faintest trace of that feeling connected with the observance. But as a matter of public convenience we would suggest that the gongs be omitted on future occasions. Europeans do not object to the Chinese having a procession or to their even indulging in bagpipes, but the gong din is a little too much for the most placid bear to bear for three days without remonstrance.

stated that he gave his opinion under instructions from his superiors, so that the decision came to may be taken as that of the highest U. S. authorities in China. The knowledge that the tenor of his foolish, and most injurious notification has been indignantly repudiated by the representatives of the United States, and has been directly contradicted in express terms by even a Chinese magistrate, may have some influence in causing Mr. Medhurst to regret that he was caused by an Indian constable, and then he endeavoured to temperize with the now immigrant Chinaman; but Chiu Achoy refused some "general" jewellery offered in order to settle the matter. Prisoner endeavoured to set up a plea to the effect that he was a really able man, who knows China well, compelled to make himself the object of general indignation and derision by an official assumption of ignorance upon points regarding which the veriest tyro in China could have given more accurate information.

We publish in another column a translation of the new coolie-trade regulations promulgated by Vice-Admiral De Souza, the new Governor of Macao. Ready as we are to give him every credit, we must confess that a first reading causes the impression that they have been devised as much in favor of the foreign agent as in favor of the Chinese emigrants, while there can be no doubt disputing the fact that any such regulation must be like those of our emigration board at home, exclusively in favor of the emigrant. That such an idea will cause a howl of derision on the part of the dealers in copper-colored wares we are fully sensible and we readily believe that Admiral De Souza has not yet been able to seize the real facts which are termed the "abuses" of the trade. He seems to be in earnest, but we must warn him that no regulations which commence to take effect after the arrival of the coolie at Macao will repress the illicit practices complained of. We will deal more exhaustively with the regulations in question on another occasion.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.

Some little excitement was occasioned to-day at the Central Police Station by an attempt to commit suicide on the part of one of the Sikh police force. It appears that report for neglect of duty for the last two days, and was placed in one of the cells to-day for that offence. He seems to have taken the punishment very much to heart, for about five minutes after he was locked up, he deliberately affixed his unstrung turban to the cell bars, got up on the ledge, fixed a noose, jumped off the ledge; and the result was a tightening of the throat, a gurgling noise, and a considerable stir.
Assistance was soon attracted to the spot, and the poor Punjaubee was liberated from his awkward position, but not before he was almost insensible. No. 414, however, recovers shortly after, and we fancy has had quite enough for the present of such a misapplication of the turban of which his race are as a rule so proud.

Mr. Thompson has, we understand, taken
several views of the Dragon feast procession,
which will doubtless be interesting to students of Chinese habits and customs.
A copy of this, we may observe, that a

The Portuguese Ministry have tendered their resignation, which has been accepted by the King.—Pull Mail Gazette, July 16.

"This is the Ministry of which Senator Amaral was a Minister, and it will be remembered that Senator Horta said that his resignation of the Governmentship of Macao was occasioned by his desire to save his political honour. Of course, neither the resignation of the Ministry—who never replied to Lord Stanley's representations about certain "grave and notorious" alms at Macao—nor that of Governor Horta, has occasioned the political change in Lisbon, still it is curious that the events should be so nearly simultaneous."—Ed. C. M.

TO-DAY'S POLICE.

Mr. May on the Bench.
John Green alias Gray was charged with having attempted to obtain money under false pretences, in a most peculiar manner.
It appears that the prisoner, who is described as a barber unemployed, is not a stranger to the criminal's dock, and would now seem to be an adept in things "sharp."

From the evidence of Chin Achoy (of the Kwong Fong) a story was made known worthy of attention, an embodying a charge against the prisoner of a combination of crimes. Chin Achoy has been in Australia, and has a shop now in Sydney, where he became acquainted with a Mr.
Kai; from whom gentleman he had postal advice some time since of the expected arrival of the barque called the Australis, and of the fact that Captain Barrack would come and see him. On 24th ulto, prisoner called upon the unsuspecting Chinaman representing that he was the said Captain Barrack, and said, "How are you? I arrived yesterday, and would like to call yesterday, but it was Sunday, so have come this morning." Prisoner said he belonged to the ship Australis, and that his vessel was Barwick, upon which Achoy at once invited the quasi-capital, to breakfast. The Green or Gray shipmaster, however, declined the invitation, but asked for the loan of £6, which he would pay next day; he also said the owner of the ship had sent Achoy some presents, which he (Gray) would take him off to see next day. The money was paid, and nothing more of the Australian or her captain was seen or heard until September 3rd. When the real Capt.
Barrack appeared, saying that his vessel had arrived. In the afternoon, Achoy met prisoner on the Praya, when a little time took place. Achoy seized Green, saying "You cheated me," prisoner produced a paper, saying it was a $20 note; and on its being retaken, prisoner took to his heels.

This document which Green attempted to show upon the Chinaman was nothing less than one of Hayter & Howell's labels for bale of goods bearing the words "Gentian Crisp Lastings, yrs. —"; upon which appeal of the arms of England, and of the City of London, with the national shield. Prisoner was caught, however, by an Indian constable, and then he endeavoured to
temperize with the now immigrant Chinaman; but Chin Achoy refused some "general" jewellery offered in order to settle the matter.

Prisoner endeavoured to set up a plea to the effect that he was a really able man, who knows China well,
in China could have given more accurate information.

Act. II.—It shall not be permitted to collect emigrants in "oun-taus" * or in any non-licensed building, by way of establishment.

§ 1.—On detection of any case of infraction of this article, all persons interested in or responsible for the same shall be punished with a fine of from $100 to $500, according to the circumstances, and in case of a repetition of the offence, with from three to six months' imprisonment, with corresponding fine.

Act. III.—Emigration Agents shall accompany their applications for a license to open establishments with a list of the names of the persons in charge of the said establishments and with a copy of the agree-
in charge.

Act. IV.—The persons in charge of the establishments shall deposit at the Superintendency caution money to the amount of $1,000, and they shall be responsible for all offences or abuses practised in the said establishments and with a copy of the agree-
in charge.

§ 1.—For a breach of the regulations persons in charge shall be liable to a fine graduated according to the circumstances of the case from $50 up to the total amount of the caution money.

Act. V.—Every manager of an establishment, or contractor, or any broker, who is being bound by any contract shall execute another contract with another Agent, shall be liable to a fine of from $100 to $500.

Act. VI.—Every manager or contractor, or any broker, who shall wilfully offend or receive emigrants who have been arranged for (adjustments) by the brokers, employés, or contractors of other agents, shall be liable to a fine of from $50 to $200.

Act. VII.—Every broker who, having entered into an engagement with an Agent, an employé, or a contractor from whom he has received money, shall offer to another person the emigrant or emigrants he may have obtained, shall be liable to a fine of from $50 to $200.

Act. VIII.—Any emigration agent provided guilty of conspiracy in a violation of Art. VI and VII, shall be liable to the penalty of closing the Establishments for which he is responsible.

Act. IX.—Without prejudice to the responsibility of the agents and managers or contractors, the persons employed in the Establishments shall be individually responsible for infringements of the internal regulations of the said establishment.

§ 1.—The managers of Establishments shall be answerable, whenever necessary, for the fines imposed upon any of the employees.

Act. X.—It shall be the duty of the Police and the Superintendent of Chinese Emigration to see that the doors of the Establishments, or licensed Emigration houses remain open and that the emigrants enjoy free egress between the hours of 8 a.m. and 4 p.m.

§ 1.—Any police-constable reporting any infraction of the emigration regulations, on the same being proved, shall receive as reward the fourth part of the fine incurred by the offender.

§ 2.—A like reward shall be paid to any citizen who shall give information of any infraction of the rules, immediately on the same being proved.

Act. XI.—No corporal punishment of any description shall be inflicted upon the Emigrants within the establishments; and any emigrant guilty of an offence shall be forthwith handed over to the Procurature of Chinese Affairs, and punished by that tribunal in conformity with the existing laws.

Persons infringing the above provisions shall be liable to a fine of from $50 to $200, and to the penalties provided in the Penal Code. (4.)

Act. XII.—Licensed brokers for Chinese emigration shall continue to receive their permits from the Procurature of Chinese Affairs, the process of selection established by previous decrees being completed before issue of the license.

§ 1.—The caution-money for brokers is named to the amount of $500.

Act. XIII.—The Emigration establishments shall keep suspended at the doors, and in all the rooms within copies, in perfectly legible characters of the contracts offered by the agents, respectively, to the emigrants.

Act. XIV.—Notice shall be given to the Superintendent as soon as the Emigration Agent has collected emigrants, having made up their minds to sign the contract, in numbers sufficient to complete the despatch of the vessel in which it is intended to send them on.

Act. XV.—The Emigration Superintendent shall be established in a building of sufficient capacity to contain, during the period of four days, the entire number of emigrants to be despatched in each vessel.

Act. XVI.—Emigrants who are ready to embark, according to the notice given by the Agent, shall be taken to the Superintendency, where, in open Court, they shall be examined by the Superintendent, and the contract shall be read and explained to them, a printed copy of the contract being delivered to each individual.

§ 1.—In this transaction, in addition to the persons employed in the Superintendency, there shall be present the Procurator of Chinese Affairs, or his deputy, the interpreter of Chinese appointed for this service, the Commandant of Police, and two Chinese residents of the most acknowledged probity, during such time as there should be no Consular authority of that nation at Macao.

Act. XVII.—Such Chinese as, on being examined, declare their readiness to emigrate and their acceptance of the terms of the contract, shall be collected in the lodging-places provided for the purpose in the Superintendency, and during the period of four days, until the signing of the contract, they shall not be allowed to communicate with the agents, managers, or contractors, or with the brokers.

Act. XVIII.—On the following day the emigrants shall publicly and at the hour appointed for the purpose be summoned to the office of the Superintendent, and there in the presence of the persons mentioned in the paragraph annexed to Art. 18, the contract shall again be read over to them, and the same questions shall be put to them, all who reply in the affirmative being thereupon sent back to their lodging places.

Act. XIX.—The same proceeding shall be repeated on the third day.

Act. XX.—On the 4th day, in a similar public manner, after a fresh reading and examination, the contract shall be signed by each emigrant in turn. The con-

* Known as Cantonese—the common term for "barbecue."

case in combination, as regards the degree of the circumstances of the offence, with Art. 559 of the Code.

tracts shall be in duplicate, according to the established rule, one being delivered to the agent and the other to the emigrant.

Act. XXI.—All Chinese who have signed the contract shall proceed forthwith to the place where they are to be at the agent's disposal, and here they shall receive the advances and clothing, and shall thereupon be at once taken on board the ship that is to convey them on their voyage.

Act. XXII.—Any Chinese who at the time the snake had become full-grown. A few months after this Ah-Tseung died, whereupon his parents drove the snake away to the neighbouring hills; on every occasion of ceremonial mourning held by the parents, and on every anniversary of his death, the snake visited the house of his departed friend, and after going several times round the house returned again to the hills; the neighbours felt a natural repugnance to these periodical visits, and remonstrated with Ah-Tseung's mother, who herself carried out of so unwelcome a visitor, forbade the snake coming to her house any more; when we see her with her own daughter we feel instinctively that she is the most dangerous adviser they could have; and when in the company of girls or young married women not belonging to her, we doubt whether we ought not to warn their natural guardians against allowing such association, for all that her standing in society is indefensible, and not a door is shut against her. We may have no absolute tangible reason to give for our distaste beyond the self-evident facts that she paints her face and dyes her hair, dresses in a very descolate style, and affects a girlish age and condition.

What good in life does this kind of woman do? Bad as the girl of the period often is, this horrible travesty of her vices often overlooks her.

Act. XXIV.—Vessels about to carry emigrants must be in readiness to sail at the latest within forty-eight hours after the embarkation has taken place.

Act. XXV.—The medical men of the establishments must inspect the emigrants at the Superintendent, on the days during which the said emigrants are lodged there.

Act. XXVI.—To meet the expenses of the Superintendence and of the maintenance of the emigrants, while lodged there, each agent respectively shall pay the sum of one dollar and a half for each emigrant of half the cost of his passage, and of his mantua, at the rate of 100 cash per day.

Act. XXVII.—Every breach of the regulations shall be reported to the Superintendent by the Agent.

Act. XXVIII.—Every breach of the
Superintendent by the Agent.

Act. XXIX.—In case of any infraction of the regulations, whether imposed by the Judicial Tribunal or by the Procurature of Chinese Affairs, shall be considered as annexed to the existing Regulations.

Post-Office Notifications.

POST OFFICE NOTIFICATION.
On the 1st October next, and thenceforward Money Orders will be issued at this Office and at the Agencies thereof at Shanghai and Yokohama, on all the Money Order Offices in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, for amounts not exceeding £10, at the rate of Exchange Current for each Mail, and charged with Commission according to the following Scale, viz.:—

For sums not exceeding £2	12 Cents
Above £2 and not exceeding £5	24
" " "	£7.42
" " "	27
" " "	£10.48

2.—No Money Order to include a fractional part of a Penny.

3.—Orders drawn in the United Kingdom upon Hongkong, Shanghai, and Yokohama, will be paid at the rate of Exchange at which Money Orders are being issued at the time of their presentation.

4.—Alphabetical Lists of over 3,700 Money Order Offices in the United Kingdom, shewing the Counties in which they are situated, are hung up for public reference at this Office, and also at Shanghai and Yokohama.

5.—Applicants for Money Orders must furnish, in full, the surname, and, at least, the initial of one Christian name, both of the Remitter and the Payee; if the Remitter or Payee be a Peer or a Bishop, his ordinary title will be sufficient; if a firm, the usual designation of such firm, such as "Baring Brothers" will suffice; but the mere term "Messrs," or the name of a Company trading under a title which does not consist of the names of the persons composing it, such as "Caron Co." is insufficient.

6.—The Remitter on stating that the Order is to be paid only through a Bank, to have the option of giving or withdrawing the name of the Payee; in such case, the Order will be crossed in the same way that Cheques are commonly crossed when they are intended to be paid through a Bank.

7.—When an Order is presented through a Bank, a receipt by any person will be sufficient, provided the Order be crossed with the name of the receiving Bank, and be presented by some Person known to be in the employ of such Bank.

8.—The signature of the Payee of a Money Order to be affixed to the Order in the place provided for the purpose. If the Payee be unable to write he must sign the receipt by making his mark in the presence of a Witness, who must sign his name, with his address in the presence of the Officer who pays the Order.

9.—Should the Payee of a Money Order desire to receive payment in the Country in which the Order was issued, at some other Office than that in which the Order was originally drawn, the transfer will be granted, provided the Order be inclosed to the Postmaster of the Office in which it was drawn. In such case a new Order will be issued, the Commission chargeable upon which will be deducted from the amount of the new Order.

10.—In the event of a Money Order miscearing or being lost, a duplicate will be granted on a written application from the Payee, (containing the necessary particulars, and accompanied by an additional Commission) to the Office where the Original Order was payable.

11.—On the receipt of a similar application, orders will be given to stop payment of a Money Order, or to renew a lapsed Order. The additional Commission in the last case will be deducted from the amount of the new Order. Lapsed Orders must be presented with the application for a new Order.

12.—But when it is desired that any error in the name of the Remitter or Payee should be corrected or that the amount of a Money Order should be repaid to the Remitter, or that a Lapsed Order should be renewed for payment in the Country in which the Order was originally drawn, application must be made to the Chief Money Order Office of such Country. This application must be accompanied by an additional Commission, unless it has reference to a Lapsed Order, in which case the Commission will be deducted from the amount of the New Order.

13.—Repayment whether of an original, or renewed, or a duplicate Order, will not be made to the remitter until it has been ascertained that the advice has been received at the Office on which the Order was originally drawn.

14.—Payment of an Order must be obtained before the end of the Sixth Calendar Month after that in which it was drawn; for instance, if drawn in January, payment must be obtained before the end of July, otherwise the Order will become lapsed, and a new Order (for which a second Commission, to be deducted from the amount of the Order, will be charged) will become necessary.

15.—If an Order be not paid before the end of the Twelfth Calendar Month after that in which it was drawn,—for instance, if drawn in January and not paid before the end of the following January—all claim to the Money will be forfeited, unless under peculiar circumstances, the Post Office of the Country in which the Order was drawn thinks proper to allow it.

16.—After once paying a Money Order by whomsoever presented, the paying Office will not be liable to any further claim. If a wrong payment, however, be made owing to negligence on the part of any Officer of the Post Office, the Postmaster General of the County or Colony in which the negligence occurs will, if he see fit, require the Officer in fault to make good the loss.

17.—No Money Order will be paid unless the advice has been previously received.

18.—Additional Rules for greater security against fraud, and for the better working of the system generally will be made as occasion may require.

19.—Should it appear that Money Orders are used by mercantile men, or others, either in the United Kingdom or at Hongkong, Shanghai, or Yokohama, for the transmission of large sums of money, the British or Colonial Post Office, as the case may be, will consider the propriety of increasing the Commission, and will exercise the power of wholly suspending for a time the issue of Money Orders.

By Command,
F. W. MITCHELL,
Postmaster General,
General Post Office,

H I S Medicine is universally admitted to be the most efficacious remedy known to the world. No preparation is so suitable to the climates of India and China as this fine and invigorating medicine. It is particularly adapted to the constitution of European ladies, as it is never failing in its effects in all diseases peculiar to females, while those who are attired by the debilitating effects of the above climates will find in this wonderful remedy a kind of talisman whereby they may insure a restoration to robust health.

H O L L O W A Y ' S O I N T M E N T ,

The science of Medicine has never before produced any remedy that can be compared to this wonderful Ointment, as it cures all other means have failed, all wounds, sores, ulcers, and also the most incurable skin diseases peculiar to the climates of India and China.

It is particularly adapted to the constitution of European ladies, as it is never failing in
its effects in all diseases peculiar to females,

that in which it was drawn,—for instance, if drawn in January and not paid before the end of the following January—all claim

The author in his Preface says:—"The tables in Chap. VII., for estimating prices, measurement of goods, exchanges, &c., have been selected from those constantly in use among the foreign merchants in China. Those for calculating the prices of tea in dollars or pence have been copied from the most extended tables, by the kind permission of the author, P. Loureiro, Esq. The last section of the same chapter, on "Movements in Bullion," has been prepared and furnished for the Guide by Patrick R. Harper, Esq., of the Commercial Bank of India at Hongkong, who has had much experience in the exchanges and movements of the precious metals in Eastern Asia."

The Appendix of Sailing Directions has been reprinted from the "China Pilot." With short interruptions, the coasts from Singapore to Hakodadi are all described in it; and for the Chinese coasts, the Directions have been improved by the insertion of the Chinese characters for the names of all places that could be ascertained."
